AS A WOMAN SEES IT

By RHETA CHILDE DORE.

New Jersey is the latest state to agitate for laws making health certificates requisite to the granting of marriage licenses. A bill will be introduced into the coming legislature providing for such certificates for all residents of the state. Persons seeking to evade the law by going outside the state to marry will not be able to return, because their marriage will not be legal in New Jersey.

In a portion of the state known as the pine barrens, New Jersey has a permanent reminder of the results of unions of the unfit. There in this arid corner of New Jersey lives a whole population corresponding to the famous Jukes family of criminals, prostitutes and degenerates. No sociologists have probed into the origin of the pine barren group, but it is altogether probable that the first members of it were a feeble-minded pair and their offspring, or a single feeble-minded parent. Living in one neighborhood for a hundred years, this one family has annexed others and has become a community. The members do not marry, they simply breed.

The New Jersey authorities do not know what to do with their pine barren population, but they are determined that they will prevent future repetitions of it. They want no more feeble-minded children, no more drunken, dissolute and immoral communities or individuals.

It may be that the proposed eugenics law will fail of its object in New Jersey as it has failed temporarily in other communities. It might be doubtful whether marriages contracted outside the state could be proved to be evasions of the law and hence void. Nevertheless, it is good that New Jersey is to attempt to have eugenic marriages. It is good that the subject is to be talked about. If it does nothing else it will make people think.

It will make sentimental boys and emotional girls think of marriage as a responsible act instead of a romantic adventure. After enough young people have learned to think beyond the engagement ring and the orange blossoms there will be small need of eugenic laws. Marriage with an unfit person will become so abhorrent an idea that no healthy, normal man or woman can be driven into it by force. Like polygamy or polyandry, a non-eugenic marriage will become an obsolete form.

TRUTH SOCIETY GIVES LIE TO MR. TUMULTY

Shows Clearly That President's
Secretary is Trying to Fool the Public.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—There is a sharp issue drawn between the Truth Society and the Washington Truth Society as to whether priests and nuns have been ill-treated in Mexico and whether or not there is evidence of it on file at the state department. Mr. Tumulty says there is not, and the Truth Society says there is, and comes forth with proof.

What adds to the interest in this controversy is the fact that both sides to it are identified with the same religious denomination. The Truth Society is composed of the leading Catholic clergymen of the National capital, having among its executive officers such churchmen of high repute as the Rt. Rev. Bishop J. Shahan, rector of Catholic University; Rt. Rev. Mgr. William T. Russell, D. D., rector of St. Patrick's; the Rev. Francis P. Donnelly, S. J., president of Gonzaga College; the Rt. Rev. Mgr. James F. Mackin, rector of St. Paul's, and prelates of equally high standing degree.

The question of truthful fact was raised by the formal statement issued from the White House by Secretary Tumulty himself, denying that there was any evidence at the state department to substantiate the reports of outrages committed in Mexico against nuns and priests, and was evidently made necessary by the criticism in Catholic circles of the recognition of Carranza by the administration.

The Truth Society, through its president, the Rev. Augustus J. Duarte, contradicts the Tumulty statement flatly. It declares that in the archives of the state department there is a sworn affidavit, addressed to former Secretary Bryan, of which the following is an abstract:

"Sir: On July 22 I had the honor of addressing your excellency on the subject of the persecution of Catholics in Mexico as practiced by the revolutionary parties now in power in that country.

"I have lived in Mexico twenty-three years, by religion am a Lutheran, and am 60 years of age.

"I know of Catholic clergymen, who under pain of death, were forced to sweep the streets of a city and do menial work for common, illiterate soldiers; of a bishop, 70 years old, deported to the penal colony on the Pacific coast; of several priests in the Monterey penitentiary as late as August 30 last; of a parish priest, 80 years old, so tortured that he lost his reason; of many deported to Texas, both Mexicans and foreigners; of priests and sisters tortured by hanging and strangling; of a priest in hiding, who was enticed out to confess a person and instead was thrown into a dungeon.

"I know of forty Sisters of Charity, who have been violated, of which number four are known to me, and one of whom has become demented; of all of the Confessionals of the Monterey district churches being piled in a public square and burned; of valuable paintings stolen from churches and supposedly brought to the United States by filibusters; of decrees published by those now governors of states, prohibiting the practice of religion, and closing the churches, convents and schools.

(Signed) "MARTIN STECKER."

The statement of the Truth Society in reply to that of Secretary Tumulty concludes with the declaration that the sworn statements of bishops, priests, nuns and reputable Catholic laymen who were persecuted by Carranza's forces in Mexico "outweigh the excerpts from the letter of the lone clergymen of Mexico City quoted by Mr. Tumulty."

SAVES DAUGHTER

Advice of Mother no Doubt Prevents Daughter's Untimely End.

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do anything for nearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher, of this place, "and was down in bed for three months. I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles.

Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me.

At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. I thought it was no use for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing.

I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased, and I look the picture of health."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, get a bottle of Cardui today. Delay is dangerous. We know it will help you, for it has helped so many thousands of other weak women in the past 50 years.

FOOD VALUES

Of Potatoes for Farm Animals
Are Shown by Prof. Horton in Address.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—The food value of potatoes was the subject of an address by Prof. H. E. Horton, of the welfare department of the American Steel and Wire Company before the National Conference on Marketing and Farm Credits here. He urged the large use of potatoes as a food, advocated the manufacture of surplus into potato chips for family use, and told how potato chips may be used as important foodstuff for farm animals. He said that potatoes furnish twenty-five per cent of the necessary food of the German empire and that in the families of German workmen potatoes constitute fifty per cent of the food consumed. He added:

"The drying of potatoes in an unknown area in the United States, while in Germany it is a well established, profitable business."

"But where potato flakes will become indispensable, once introduced, will be in the army and navy and the fitting out of camping parties. Dried potatoes can be kept almost indefinitely, and besides the drying process reduces the weight about three-fourths."
